

Academic Session and Press Conference on the Euro – China AquaFishNet cooperation

hosted by CESTY - the China-EU Science & Technology Year and
the ASEM Aquaculture Platform

Royal Flemish Academy of Belgium for Sciences and Art
Brussels, August 31, 2007

AGENDA

Koen Verlaeckt, Chief of cabinet of the Flemish Ministry of Economy, Science & Innovation: Welcome and introduction of ASEM aquaculture platform

Patrick Sorgeloos, Chairman of the ASEM Aquaculture Platform, Ghent University, Belgium: 20 years of aquaculture cooperation with China

Johan Verreth, past president European Aquaculture Society, Wageningen University: aquaculture in Europe and networking interests with China

Jianhai Xiang, past director Institute of Oceanology of the Chinese Academy of Sciences, Qingdao: aquaculture in China - challenges and opportunities

Yingqi Zhou, past president Shanghai Fisheries University: China AquaFishNet and China's interests for cooperation with Europe

Cornelia Nauen: European Commission, Directorate General Research, Unit International Scientific Cooperation

Jacques Fuchs: European Commission, Directorate General Fisheries & Maritime Affairs, Aquaculture Unit

Vito Borrelli: European Commission, Directorate General Education and Culture

Questions and answers

Reception

